Challengers Meet to Discuss Cup Options

Valencia, Spain, 3 December: Challenger representatives met this evening in a joint effort to move forward the process for the next America's Cup.

"It was a very good meeting. The challengers agree that certainty is needed to return to a conventional America's Cup regatta and we are committed to working together to get the event back on track," said GGYC spokesperson Tom Ehman following the meeting.

Twenty-four representatives of 14 challengers met in Valencia and by telephone conference.
