Defender Alinghi open to discussions for 33rd America's Cup in February 2010

Lucien Masmajan, Société Nautique de Genève legal counsel, commented following today's hearing before Justice Kornreich of the New York Supreme Court:

"Today's hearing before Justice Kornreich was productive. Our yacht club, the Société Nautique de Genève, the America's Cup Defender and the Golden Gate Yacht Club, the challenger, have agreed to meet in New York over the weekend to discuss the venue for the 33rd America's Cup. We are due to report back to Justice Kornreich on Monday and are hopeful an agreement can be reached."
